

e-ventures Worldwide, LLC
9045 Strada Stell Court, Suite 103
Naples, FL 34109

TITLE: Computer Programmer
Job Category: Computer Programmer

We're looking for an experienced Computer Programmer to work with our team to guide the strategy, recommendations, analysis and design of front-end applications, website development and Internet applications. This role is instrumental in identification, evaluation and forecasting acquisitions for the corporation.

JOB DESCRIPTION PURPOSE:

The Computer Programmer serves as integral member of the e-ventures team. The Computer Programmer will provide, organizational knowledge and ability to conceptualize the development of relevant websites and domains, internal systems, and applications development.

JOB DUTIES:

The job of Computer Programmer is to recommend, analyze and facilitate the development of front end applications as well as the User Interface management and integration for websites, domains, internal systems and applications.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

- Development of new web sites, products and interfaces as defined by the company
- Continued development of the current web assets, assist with development testing for web applications
- Provide analysis and design of front-end applications
- Coding and integration within the CakePHP, Symfony, Yii2 and Ruby on Rails MVC framework
- Database scripting and manipulation
- Backend/server coding and technical issues resolutions
- Website development and internet application programming using PHP, JavaScript, DHTML, HTML5 AJAX, XML,
- CSS on the LAMP/LEMP platform
- Coding and integration with memory object caching system using Memcached and Redis.io
- Software development and Engineering, Internet development
- Report directly to executive management
- Communications within development and design team, quality assurance and designers

QUALIFICATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

- Bachelor's degree in IT, electrical engineering, computer science or related field
- Demonstrated knowledge of commonly-used concepts, practices and procedures within the digital/web industry
- Demonstrated knowledge in applications architecture
- Strong understanding and management skills in full life cycle development
- Strong understanding and expertise of the industry best practices in software architecture, web design and development methodologies
- Strong project management and multi-tasking skills
- Ability to clearly conceptualize and implement directive plans, with a positive, can-do attitude
- Strong professional communication and interpersonal skills
- Highly detail oriented and organized, ability to manage multiple priorities and work under tight deadlines with exceptional prioritization skills
- Strong computer skills and working knowledge of multiple web-based tools and platforms on PC and MAC

Pre-employment and random drug testing, Pre-employment background check

Hours 8AM to 5PM, on-call 24/7

No Benefits

Salary $68,300 annually

For consideration please send resume and cover letter to jobs@eventuresworldwide.com. No phone calls please.